

MY CIRRICULUM VITAE

FLORENCE AKOTH OLWERO

olweroflorence@gmail.com

PERSONAL PROFILE

I FLORENCE AKOTH OLWERO dedicated computer science student at KIRIRI Women's University of Science and Technology, currently in first year, second semester. I am proficient in Word, Excel, Access, CSS, JavaScript, HTML, Database and MYSQL. I am passionate about technology and community impact I actively engages in initiatives to empower young women. A football enthusiast, I find inspiration in teamwork and discipline, I am committed to creating awareness and making a positive different in my community. I aspire to leverage my skills in technology to drive meaningful change.

KEY SKILLS AND ABILITIES

- . Web Development: Proficient in HTML, CSS and JavaScript, with hands on experience in website creation.
- . Microsoft Office Suite: Strong command of Word, Excel, and Access for document creation, data analysis, and reporting.
- . Database Management: Skilled in MYSQL and Microsoft Access for organizing and managing data efficiently.
- . Communication: Passionate about mentoring young women and creating awareness on social issues.
- . Leadership: Experienced in leading teams and projects, empowering team members to achieve their full potential.

AWARDS

- . Microsoft Office Specialist: Obtained certificate in word, Excel, and Access, highlighting advanced skills.

. Football Excellence: Secure a county level trophy in high school, demonstrating leadership and teamwork.

EDUCATION

2024- Present at KRIRI Women's University of Science and Technology Diploma in Computer science (IT)

. Currently pursuing a Diploma in Computer Science (IT), with a strong foundation in programming, web development and database management.

2017-2023 God-MARERA Mixed secondary school

. Consistently rank among the top 10 student in Business Studies and History.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

. Theatre, Environment Conservation, Art, Hing, Swimming, Travel.

. Active member of the Fancied Story Network (FSN), campaigning for mental health awareness through storytelling and community-driven initiatives to reduce stigma and empower youth voices.